About Darpan

Darpan is FAHM IAS's GS Prelims Test Series for aspirants appearing in the UPSC Civil Services (Prelims) Examination, 2027. The series builds preparation in stages: subject tests first, then consolidated revision tests, and finally full-length papers that simulate the complete GS Paper I. Each test is framed to reflect the demands of the UPSC Prelims paper, with statement-based and multi-option questions, and includes current affairs drawn from the months before each test.
